About the Author

Introduction:

“Examine yourselves to see whether you are in the faith; test yourselves. Do you not realize that Christ Jesus is in you--unless, of course, you fail the test?”

2 Corinthians 13:5 NIV

Self-examination is not too popular these days. If we are honest, most of us spend way too much of our time watching what other people are doing versus pay attention to our own actions. I know am Look at You: A Spiritual Examination of the Self I guilty. You probably are too. Let's admit it; examining others is more interesting than scrutinizing ourselves. It seems that we get a kick out of interpreting the life and Look at You: A Spiritual Examination of the Self journey of other people and telling them what we think they should do and how they should live. When it comes to us, it is very difficult to look in the mirror and see how we truly are. However, self-examination is a spiritual responsibility. Paul told Timothy to take heed to himself.

“Watch your life and doctrine closely. Persevere in them, because if you do, you will save both yourself and your hearers.”
