Presumed Guilty

by

Russell Madden

Still relevant today. A history lesson from a land far away and a time long ago.

According to the federal government, the latest dire threat to your life and limb is...a cell phone.

No, this warning does not concern the bogus science that purports to claim a causal link between cell phone usage and brain cancers. (The same kind of nonsense dressed up in jargon claims that various cancers result from living near power lines.) This time, some members in Congress want to pass a national law forbidding Presumed Guilty you from holding your phone while you converse with friends, family, or business associates while tooling down the byways of America.
