Reviews for Obamatyme: Election Poetry

“Melodye Micëre Van Putten is a talented poet whose love for truth and justice is quite evident in Obamatyme. Don’t miss it! ”

—Dr. Cornel West, Class of 1943 Professor,
Princeton University, Princeton, New Jersey

“Van Putten, a premier Africologist, has patented the science of converting theory into praxis with her stellar curriculum, Black History Workshops for Children. With Obamatyme, Van Putten unabashedly summons and engages all people to courageously practice what scholar Cornel West deemed ‘relentless self-critique.’ Obamatyme is much more than a collage of poems; it is a call-to-action... now! The 60’s taught us it was Nation time! Now, it is Obamatyme. The fundamental question is how will we respond?”

—Professor Eddie Becton, Department of African American Studies
Loyola Marymount University, Los Angeles, Los Angeles, California

“Obamatyme is a wonderful journey through poetry into the emotions of America in general, and African Americans in particular, regarding the wave known as Obamatyme. Micëre seems to have captured the time in some scintillating poetry that takes us Soul Poems: Life as Fertile Ground through the chronology of this significant historical period of social change. A learning source of information for high school and college courses, it is well written and well thought out; I will definitely use it in my Introduction to Africana Studies class and suggest it to my faculty colleagues in both sociology and political science as a supplement for into Black politics.”
