I found a photograph of my wife, Sue, when she must have been about 8 years old.

I had never seen that picture before, Special Susie and the Mystery of the Wooden Hut I looked at it for a long time.

I imagined a story about my 'special Sue' as a young girl, I called her Special Susie.

I loved writing this story, I hope you enjoy reading it.

Chapter 1

Looking out the window

“Susie?”

“Yes, Dad?”

“Have you seen Mrs Miller today?”

“Yes, I helped her make a cake.”

“She tells me she has milk on her floor, flour on her ceiling, and eggs in her washing machine.”

“Well...the problem was that I was looking out her window. But I really did help her.”

“Well, I think that makes you rather a wonderful, marvellous, and unique helper.”

“What, Dad?”

“I said you’re... special, Susie.”

“So, I’m ‘Special Susie’, thanks, Dad.”

You see, Susie, or Special Susie as she is now, had been wanting to have a look at the old wooden hut. She couldn’t see it from her own window, but she could from Mrs Miller’s kitchen, so Susie had asked her neighbour if she wanted any help doing something.

But, Susie had spent so much time looking out the window, that the milk, flour and eggs had gone all over Mrs Miller’s kitchen. From now on, Susie had to find another way to keep an eye on the wooden hut. She had better ask Hesi.
