Introduction

We've all been there before. You're at a party when someone approaches and talks to you like you're long lost friends. Sometimes you remember little tidbits about the person, but you can't remember Super Memory: The Best 20 Lazy Ways to a Laser-Sharp & Unlimited Memory! his or her name. Sometimes, you don't remember them at all. What do you do? Oftentimes, you excuse yourself after a while to get a drink and don't come back. Or maybe you're on the street minding your own business when someone calls out your name and says hi. You say hi back and continue walking so that person won't notice that you don't remember her or him.

How many times have you left the house and drive away only to realize after a few miles that you left your wallet or your phone? Have you ever felt so worried that you might have left the faucet on or forgot to turn off the gas?

As we age, our memory takes a hit. That's something you should not take lightly. Forgetfulness is no laughing matter. Babies have died after being left to roast in a car. The culprit: the adult forgot they had a baby with them in the car and went about their day.
